

DR. DONALD CINOTTI

JCMC doc elected pres of medical society

Dr. Donald Cinotti, an ophthalmologist and long-time member of the medical staff at the Jersey City Medical Center, has been elected the 218th president of the Medical Society of New Jersey.

Cinotti has served on several Jersey Medical Center committees and has been a long-term member and officer of the Medical Society of New Jersey.

"This is a great honor for Dr. Cinotti, and we're very proud of his accomplishment," said Dr. Kenneth Garay, chief medical officer at Jersey City Medical Center. "It's a testament to the respect that doctors throughout the state have for him as a physician and a leader."

Founded in 1766, the Medical Society of New Jersey is the oldest professional society in the United States. In representing all medical disciplines, the society advocates for the rights of patients and physicians alike. Cinotti will be sworn in on May 15.

— JOURNAL STAFF